

100 OCTANE

100 Octane is a mix-CD put together by the Debris Couch Creative Collective (D3C). The kind of music that feels like getting punched in the face. The kind of music that makes YOU want to punch someone in the face. This is your brain on music. None of these songs have ever been compiled into one playlist before. V-Kei? Fuck yes. SKRAMZ?? You bet your bottom fucking dollar. Something for everybody; the D3C guarantee. Music to fuel you, music to feel in your lungs, music to take your lungs out to. 100 songs that will NEVER be mixed like this again. The kind of you music you show your friends immediately. 100 Octane. Do you wanna receipt?

We regret to admit that it was her idea, the pig girl... The big girl... Music like gas, music that makes you just want to keep inhaling. But, who are we kidding? It wasn't her idea, but yours, dear stranger. KEEP GOING!
