WE MADE PHYSICAL MEDIA FOR YOUR EARS

YOU, YES YOU, IF YOU WANT, OR EVEN IF YOU JUST WANT TO READ OR MAYBE YOU KNOW SOMEONE WHO LISTENS TO MUSIC SEMI-REGULARLY LIKE MUSIC LIKE MUSIC

How'd we make the mix?

We had an idea—no clue how—MUSIC like GAS. Songs that make you want to just keep inhaling, more music, more oxygen, whatever you need. CDs with a printed cover, a tracklist. CDs for sharing. Shit we could give away.

Then, we started.

100 Octane!!! We planned for 99 tracks because we thought it'd be neat. "Murder of Crows" by Mutant Strain was always going to start the mix until it didn't! Everything was subject to change (RIP "Brackish" by Kittie, RIP Leathermouth, RIP "Oyster" by Jawbreaker). We made a master playlist. We stopped using it (the master playlist now has 173 tracks). For a shining moment, Pillowin' and Tragedy were on the same mix (and it tore us up to cut the GOAT!). It was miraculous. Every part of making the mix was miraculous. There's no songs we don't love. Gas Mix is not an anthropological document. It's what we wanted to make. It was ready when it was itself. 6 months. We found time for it, pitched different tracks for every slot, got lost in grooves that made no sense, threw the whole thing out over and over again, revised, jammed, talked, and it was awesome. Homie, it was beautiful.

AND THEN THERE WAS MORE TO DO!!!

CDs!!!

We got our mp3s on Souseek and Youtube to mp3 sites and bandcamp*. We scored a great deal on facebook marketplace for 100 CDs for $10. Another deal for cases (jewel cases, DVDs, AND paper slips!) for $5. We reached out to friends and organizing homies, and now we have whole bunch with which to make as many mixes as we want. We'd heard good things about estate sales and Goodwills as spots to hunt for CDs and jewel cases, but, unfortunately, luck was not in our favor. Maybe it will be in yours! Oh, the places you'll go, dear reader! We burnt our CDs on a PC tower we were lucky enough to have with a disk drive in it, and one of us made plans to get an external drive to turn a laptop into another burning station. We made the art and materials we wanted to include with the mix, we printed everything, we uploaded everything we could onto our website debriscouch.noblogs.orgso anyone can make their own copies if they so chose. Then, we found you, out in the world. If this CD brings you any joy, we hope you'll find a way to share that experience with others. Go wild, you lunatic. We hope all your dreams come true.

KNOWN ISSUES

- MP3 CDs don't play on older players
- A number of CDs have "Children Write on Missiles" by Scarlet's Remains playing after XL Bully as well as later on in the mix. This was a happy accident. The first one wasn't intentional, and we fixed it in later discs.
- Alaiyakasico's cover of AaAaAaAAaAaAAa by Nashimoto-P is for some reason lacking vocals on many of the discs?!? This caught us by surprise and we did fix it once we caught it. If your CD is missing Alaiyakasico's vocals, please treat yourself to the full the song wherever you listen to your music.

ANNOTATIONS

* Fuego, fuego, fuego by MESS is an amazing album that we did not access through bandcamp because it was priced at $100 MXN and it was not until time of writing that we realized that was in pesos. So about $5 USD. Much love MESS, < 3!
